

FINAL CLEAN-UP
SEVERAL HUNDRED PAIRS
Women's White
Strap Slippers & Oxfords
Priced for Quick Disposal

NOW

$1.00

THE PAIR

All Sizes,
But Not in Every Style

TRAVERS

314 7th St. N. W.

POTENTIAL LAWYER IS SOURCE OF DELIGHT TO FAY KING

Precocious Youngster Asks Many Intricate Questions.

By FAY KING.
I'm faster than a flash when I get a bid to a home-cooked dinner. Always arrive ahead of time, which is a dreadful social error, but such comfort.
The other evening some nice folks invited me, and, getting there too soon again as usual, I was being entertained by the eldest son, about seven.
Layfield wants to be a lawyer, and from what I heard I think he is one already.
He's a bit perturbed because his little sister wants to be an iceman when she grows up, but he feels sure that when she gets old enough to notice styles she'll want to be a modiste instead, because, after all, the reason she wants to be an iceman is so she can eat ice, and he deducts with his logical mind that she'll finally prefer to run a millinery store or dress shop so she can wear the hats and dresses, which is more as a lady should.
ABOUT NICE PEOPLE.
He's a thoughtful youngster, and a sweet kid.

The other day he said to his mother:
"Mother, we're nice people, ain't we?"

His mother said:
"Why, of course."
"Well, some people ain't nice, are they?" he went on.
"That's right," she said, off handed.
"Well, the people that ain't nice think they're nice, don't they, mussey?" he went on, meditating.
"Yes, dear," his mother said.
"An' we think we're nice, don't we?" he asked after thinking a bit.

INCIPIENT LEGAL MIND.
"Yes, of course, dear, now eat your dinner."

But he didn't eat anything for a little while and then looked up seriously and said:

"Well, then, how do we know we're nice an' they ain't nice?"

That's something worth thinking about, isn't it.
A youngster like that in the family is as good as a post-graduate course in philosophy.

One day, when his mother was dressed up to go out, he struck a lawyerish pose, and looking, with thoughtful criticism, said:

"You look awful pretty, mother! Somehow you make your dress look pretty instead of your dress making you look pretty."

Who could ever wish for a nicer compliment than that from anybody and you know what they say about children always telling the truth.

I'll bet he's going to be a great man—and when he is, I can say: "I knew him when—"

Don't think your skin is so good you can neglect it.

Lifeguard keeps beautiful skins beautiful.

Wake up your skin!

The HEALTH soap

$2 BILL JINX PUT HIM
IN JAIL, SAYS YOUTH

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—Others may scoff at "jinxes," but not fifteen-year-old Erick McDonald, a negro boy, living at No. 54 West Ninety-ninth street. Erick was taken to the Children's Society after he had been arrested, according to the police, in the act of burglarizing the show cases in front of the Big Store, at No. 308 Sixth avenue. The boy passed the store and noticed about a dozen $2 bills pasted on the inside of a show case to advertise a sale. The police say he returned and with a penknife cut the putty from a glass panel, and with five of the $2 bills on the glass started away. Patrolman Frank Nau saw him working at the show case.

LAWYER FINED $10 FOR CONTEMPT, ASKS RAISE

DEL NORTE, Col., Aug. 30.—Attorney Jess Stephenson and District Judge Wiley engaged in a "judicial poker game" here that proved expensive for the attorney.
"Mr. Stephenson, you are fined $10 for contempt of court," announced Judge Wiley, after a heated conversation during the course of a trial.
"Your honor, I suggest that you make it $20," retorted Stephenson.
"Mr. Stephenson, you are fined $20 for contempt of court," responded the court.
"Your honor, I further suggest that you double it," said Stephenson.
"Mr. Stephenson, I call your suggestion and tilt the pot $10 more, making a total of $50 fine for contempt of this court," the judge declared, and the "judicial poker hand" was closed with the payment of the fine by Stephenson.

FOLLOW THE BALL GAME

Keep a Perfect Tab on Every Play With a New

"BABE" RUTH
BASEBALL SCORER

Made expressly for The Washington Times

Actual Size

FREE

If you want the "Babe" Ruth Baseball Scorer mailed to you, enclose seven cents in stamps to cover postage and cost of handling with your coupons; five cents if you come to The Times. See directions below.

EVERY "FAN" SHOULD HAVE ONE They're made of celluloid, are durable and just fit in the palm of the hand. Revolving discs keep you in touch with every play in the game—the hits, the runs, the errors, the outs and the number of innings played. At the end of the game you have all the important features of the box-score right in your hand.

The "Babe" Ruth Baseball Scorers make the game doubly interesting because they set forth the whole story of the game in a nutshell.

FREE TO READERS OF

The Washington Times

All you have to do to get one of the new "Babe" Ruth Baseball Scorers is to CLIP THE COUPONS in the Daily and Sunday Washington Times. Clip seven consecutive coupons, send or bring them to the "Babe" Ruth Scorer Department with 5 cents (enclose 7 cents in stamps if you want scorer mailed), The Washington Times, Munsey Building, and this dandy, handy little celluloid tabulator will be given or sent to you.

CLIP THIS COUPON

This special coupon will be accepted as one of the seven consecutive coupons required to give you the scorer.

Start clipping the remainder of the coupons tomorrow morning. Save them every day until you have a complete set of seven and then you will be given the scorer.

These "Babe" Ruth Baseball Scorers are distributed exclusively by the Washington Times. You can't buy them or get them anywhere else.

August 30, 1922

This coupon, with six more from six consecutive issues of The Washington Times, with 5 cents (7 cents by mail), covering cost of handling, good for one of my Baseball Scorers, when presented at the front counter, first floor Times office, Munsey Building.

BABE RUTH.

Clip Your First Coupon Today—Watch for the Next One Tomorrow! CLIP A COUPON EVERY DAY UNTIL YOU HAVE SEVEN.

"STANDARD"

REG. U. S. PAT OFF.

THE BEST

GASOLINE

MONEY CAN BUY

STANDARD OIL COMPANY

(NEW JERSEY)

